

BEST Onshore

The Basic Environmental Skills Training course provides delegates with technical and practical skills, knowledge, and tools to fulfil their role in improving environmental performance through workforce engagement.

Aims

The course is an introduction to environmental management in hazardous industries working within COMAH or PPC regulated sites.

You will learn about the compliance driven issues and by taking part in exercises and breakout sessions, understand the practical application of them and learn from other delegate's experiences.

Course Content

Day 1:

- The environmental challenge
- The role of E-Reps
- Legislation overview
- Environmental Management Systems
- Environmental aspects and impacts

Day 2:

- Environmental good practice
- The Environmental Toolbox
- Environmental inspection exercise

Learning Outcomes

- Understand the role of E-Reps
- Assist in the identification and management of environmental goals and targets
- Understand the concept of environmental risk assessment
- Knowledge of key environmental legislation requirements Identify good and bad environmental practice
- Acquire key skills to engage with the workforce and deliver key environmental messages
- Develop a framework for effective active monitoring and inspection.

Suitable for: All levels of the workforce, E-Reps and supervisors with responsibility for environmental management, new environmental entrants into the onshore sector.

Prior knowledge: None required

Course duration: 2 Days Bespoke courses available on request, minimum 5 delegates.